Mark Holleman

Owner of Tanglewood House

The Holleman family has had undying commitment to giving back to Clarksville and its residents. Mark has been active in the Chamber of Commerce, was youngest member of City Council for 8 years. His family founded a real estate company in Clarksville in 1890's and the Holleman family has been involved in this business ever since.

Mark Holleman is well known in Clarksville for many reasons, one of which is that he helped establish tracks to trails, turning abandoned railroad tracks into hiking trails for Clarksvillians to enjoy.

Mark is also the new owner of Tanglewood House where we can already see improvements and upgrades to this wonderful dining venue. The newest venture is the establishment of a bakery down the entrance sidewalk - be looking for it!

Primary Candidates for District Attorney

Robert Nash - recently appointed interim D.A. by Gov. Bill Lee. Nash has been Asst.D.A. for 19 years, specializing in Homicide & violent offenders.

Hello and Happy February!

As we start to look at 2022 and fill up our calendars, I want to challenge each of you to invite someone back or invite someone new to Montgomery County Republican Women. Whether it's to one of our monthly Luncheons or our upcoming Lincoln Reagan Day Dinner or to attend our Monthly GOP meetings, I am assured they will find friendly faces that will Welcome them with open arms. As strong Conservative Christian women need to stand alongside each other and tackle all the challenges that 2022 has in store for us. Women have made great changes in our history.

. . . Like Susan B Anthony. She was born February 15, 1820, in Rochester, New York. She was a women's rights leader during the most politically active period of her life. It was there that she was arrested for voting in 1872, before women had the right to vote. She is best known as an advocate for woman suffrage, but she began her career as an outspoken proponent of temperance. She was not allowed to speak publicly, however, because she was a woman. In response to this outrage, she teamed up with Elizabeth Cady Stanton in 1852 and dedicated her life to winning voting rights for women. She died in 1906 without realizing her dream. Women didn't get the right to vote nationally until 1920, with the passage of the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

Let's as a club show our community, especially the women in our community how to be Strong Conservative Republicans. Let's empower each of us, not separate us with individual agendas.

Below are our Club Objectives, I think together we can achieve them and more.

Our Club Objectives:

- To promote and inform the public through political education and activity
- To increase the effectiveness of women in the cause of good government
- To facilitate cooperation among the National and State Federations
- To foster loyalty to the Republican Party and promote its principles and candidates in all elections including non-partisan elections
- To support the objectives and policies of the Republican National and Tennessee Executive Committees and to work for the election of Republican party nominees
- To attain Diamond Award in 2022- 2023

One Mission, One fight!

Tina

Republican Principles

A Belief in Smaller Government: To preserve the sanctity of liberty of the individual, it is our belief that government must necessarily be limited. Otherwise, the paternalism of the few would restrict the freedom of the many to decide what is best for themselves.

Support of the Federalist System of Government: To bring power closer to the people, it is imperative we restrict the growth of a centralized federal government....States ought to have the power to determine which programs and measures would be most appropriate and fitting for them.

Fiscal Conservatism: In keeping with our desires for the greatest individual liberty, we support policies of limited taxation and government spending.

Strong National Defense: We believe the best way to preserve the peace and protect our national interests abroad comes through a strong national defense.

Individual Liberties and Responsibilities: Along with individual liberties come individual responsibilities and duties. Government must act to preserve freedom, while individuals must exercise their responsibilities to preserve order.

Tolerance, Inclusiveness, and Optimism: We believe in the right of fellow Republicans to disagree on certain matters of principle and policy. We believe in being an open and inclusive party respectful of different points of view. We are indeed a "big-tent" party that offers no "litmus tests" or barriers to entry.

The Constitution of the United States of America

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

Article I.

Section 3.

The Senate of the United States shall be composed of two Senators from each State, chosen by the Legislature thereof, for six Years; and each Senator shall have one Vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in Consequence of the first Election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three Classes. The Seats of the Senators of the first Class shall be vacated at the Expiration of the second Year, of the second Class at the Expiration of the fourth Year, and of the third Class at the Expiration of the sixth Year, so that one third may be chosen every second Year; and if Vacancies happen by Resignation, or otherwise, during the Recess of the Legislature of any State, the Executive thereof may make temporary Appointments until the next Meeting of the Legislature, which shall then fill such Vacancies.

No Person shall be a Senator who shall not have attained to the Age of thirty Years, and been nine Years a Citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an Inhabitant of that State for which he shall be chosen.

The Vice President of the United States shall be President of the Senate, but shall have no Vote, unless they be equally divided.

The Senate shall chuse their other Officers, and also a President pro tempore, in the Absence of the Vice President, or when he shall exercise the Office of President of the United States.

The Senate shall have the sole Power to try all Impeachments. When sitting for that Purpose, they shall be on Oath or Affirmation. When the President of the United States is tried, the Chief Justice shall preside: And no Person shall be convicted without the Concurrence of two thirds of the Members present.

Judgment in Cases of Impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from Office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any Office of honor, Trust or Profit under the United States: but the Party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to Indictment, Trial, Judgment and Punishment, according to Law.
